PART: A GENERAL

ISSF Code of Ethics

In accordance with the ISSF Constitution, the objectives of the ISSF are to promote and encourage the development of the shooting sport throughout the world, to provide drug-free sport and to promote and encourage the development of international relations. The purpose of this Code is to guarantee that the objectives of the ISSF will be executed in a fair manner without disturbance and to sanction incidents that damage the image of the ISSF activities or bring them into disrepute. ISSF members, continental organizations, teams, officials and athletes shall participate in ISSF Championships and activities in accordance with the standards of ethics, fair play and sportsmanship established by the ISSF Statutes, Rules and Regulations and by this Code. This Code recognizes basic standards for fair play and moral behavior and procedures for judging and sanctioning violations of those standards.

APPLICATION OF THE CODE

The following incidents or offences shall be subject to the application of this Code:

1.1 Acts of discrimination in violation of the Constitution of the ISSF.

1.2 Acts of misconduct, misbehaviour or harassment including, but not limited to abusive, violent conduct in a disturbing, disorderly or provocative manner, unjustified interference, deliberate obstruction of the orderly conduct of any sporting event, malicious alteration, damage or destruction of property or the infliction of physical or mental harm on others.

1.3 Cheating including, but not limited to doping, manipulation of equipment or scores to give an advantage to an athlete or to a team, falsification or alteration of documents indicating false age, nationality, gender or other information, with the purpose of obtaining unfair advantage for an official, an athlete or a team.

1.4 Conviction for a criminal offence.

1.5 Acts of indiscretion, insubordination or partiality.

1.6 Ethical offences may be considered independent of any action

Behavior issues: Please be aware that the organizing committee will not tolerate any abuse of any kind of our volunteers, officials or competitors. If the organizing committee determines that such abuse has occurred or that the ISSF Code of Ethics has been breached, the organizing committee will eject any individual responsible for such abuse. The individual will be ejected from any venue utilized by the National Championship.
